

Tuesday, February 17 in the Veterinary Medical Center Auditorium

Former U.S. Army Capt. and New York Times bestselling author Luis Montalván & his Extraordinary Service Dog, “Tuesday”

Presentation and panel discussion highlighting recovery from post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD)

Captain Montalván and his service dog, Tuesday, are advocates for service members, veterans, families, and all people with disabilities. Throughout his 17-year service in the U.S. Army, Capt. Montalván received numerous awards including two Bronze Stars, the Purple Heart, the Army Commendation Badge for Valor and the Combat Action Badge. Until Tuesday: A Wounded Warrior and the Golden Retriever Who Saved Him shares how Tuesday, his highly trained service dog, began to build a bridge of trust and recovery following the physical and psychological wounds of war. Their highly acclaimed children's book, Tuesday Tucks Me In: The Loyal Bond between a Soldier and his Service Dog delights and educates readers of all ages.

5:30 p.m. – Registration & Box Dinners available
RSVP by Wednesday February 11
to lammers.71@osu.edu or 614-292-8727

5:45 pm – Welcome by Dean Lonnie King

6 p.m. – Keynote
Captain Luis Carlos Montalván and Tuesday

7:15 p.m. – Panel Discussion

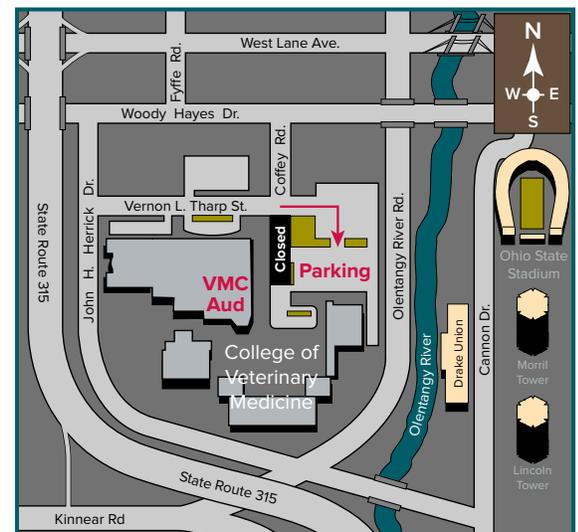

- Autumn Young – Executive Director of People. Animals. Love. (PAL) and wife of wounded warrior
- Teresa McCarty – Program Manager – Iraq and Afghanistan returning Veterans
- Joelle Nielsen – Honoring the Bond Program Coordinator, Veterinary Medical Center

8 p.m. – Book Signing

Admission: Free

Barnes & Noble will be selling
Until Tuesday and Tuesday Tucks Me In

Veterinary Medical Center Auditorium
601 Vernon Tharp St.
Columbus, OH 43210

Use an Ohio State parking pass or the “pay and display” machine for $1.75/hr.